CARROLLTON BANK ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENTS

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND - April 23, 2007 - Carrollton Bank, one of Maryland's oldest community banks, recently announced promotions and additions to the company.

William Sherman was promoted to Senior Vice President/Chief Lending Officer. Mr. Sherman previously served as a senior commercial real estate lender within the bank and has worked in the banking industry for over 25 years.

Also within the Commercial Lending Department, Michael Camiel was promoted to Senior Vice President/Chief Credit Officer. Mr. Camiel has been with Carrollton Bank for nearly 5 years and has over 30 years of banking experience.

The bank also welcomed Deanna Lintz as Senior Vice President, Branch Administration. Over the past 18 years, Lintz has held senior level positions at several financial institutions in the region.

In addition to the three senior vice presidents, three vice presidents were added to the Human Resources, Marketing and Training Departments.

Cathy Regan was named Vice President of Human Resources, Jeanette Neal is the company's new Vice President, Marketing Director and Sally Rogers will serve as the new Vice President of the Training Department.

"We are very excited to have such skilled and talented individuals within our organization," said Robert Altieri, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Carrollton Bank has served our communities for over 100 years and with the addition of these professionals, we will continue to provide our customers with the highest level of personal service for all of their financial needs," continued Altieri.

Carrollton Bancorp is the parent company of Carrollton Bank, a commercial bank serving the deposit and financing needs of both consumers and businesses through a system of 10 branch offices in central Maryland. The Company provides brokerage services through Carrollton Financial Services, Inc., and mortgage services through Carrollton Mortgage Services, Inc., subsidiaries of the Bank.
